TROPICAL STOEMP, WHAT IS IT?

A photography magazine.

No text.

Only pictures.

No personal portfolios but a long story told in many voices.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE?

You send us around ten images by wetransfer to info@lemulet.com before December 31, 2024.

- Unpublished images (if possible).
- Exceptionally, for this theme, we are only looking for black and white photographs.

What resolution ?

- The bigger the better.
- Minimum A4 at 300 dpi.
- .jpg is good, .tif is even better.

Le Mulet reserves the right to select one, several, or none of your images. If you were already in previous issues, you can still come back!

Important information!

- Files must be named : firstname_lastname_number
- Please join your first name, last name, postal address and website to the application.

WHAT'S THE THEME?

The magazine is always constructed in the same way, in music, following the plot of a story inspired by a song title. For this fifth issue, we chose the song “You Want It Darker” by Leonard Cohen. To help you, here are some key words: Death, the Afterlife, darkness and obscurity. But don't they say that it is in the deepest darkness that light emerges?

HOW MUCH ARE WE PAID?

Not a lot.

If published, you will receive two copies of the issue.

WHAT WILL IT LOOK LIKE?

A 22 x 28cm paper magazine.

With a beautiful A2 poster folded in the middle.

Layout by Studio Dirk.

This will not be an overpriced art book but a beautiful little 96 pages magazine at the most attractive price possible.

AND WHEN WILL IT BE PUBLISHED?

Receipt of files before December 31, 2024 and release of this fifth issue in summer 2025.
